WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14 1737.

No. 693.

LETTERS from Naples, of the 16th ult. O.S. say, that upon some Complaints against the Bishop of Massa's Grand Vicar, several Officers being sent to apprehend him, he made a Resistance, and wounded one of them with a Stiletto; whereupon the Officers stabbed him in several Places, and dragged him thro' the Streets with Inhumanity, that when he was just ready to expire in their Hands, they would scarce let a Priest give him Absolution, had it not been for the Clamour of the Mob.

Those of the 20th from Rome say, that the Portuguese Minister there declaring that he had Orders leave that City, with all his Countrymen, if the Pope does not consent that the Dignity of Cardinal made Hereditary to the Patriarchs of Lisbon, for Time being; the Pope seeing that he was making Preparations accordingly, desired him to defer his Departure, and summoned a Congregation of Cardinals to concert an Accommodation.

By Advices of the same Date from Leghorn, it appears, that the Baron de Neuhoft is at length returned to the Isle of Corsica with 3 Ships, and the Ammunition on board that he bought at Lisbon; and that he was received with great Demonstrations of Joy and Triumph.

Mean Time, 'tis said the Genoese Government has drawn up a Project for an Accommodation with the Malecontents; which they have sent to France, for the King's Approbation. This Project, in which General Amnesty is included, among other Articles, is said to be very favourable to the Malecontents: 'tis uncertain, whether the latter know any thing of the Matter, much more whether they will acquiesce in them.

Those of the 27th ult. from Geneva say, that the Malecontents are still in Possession of the Gates, squares, and Town-house; that 3 Days before they presented a Paper, containing above 50 Heads of Demands of Alterations in the Laws, the Generality of which have a Tendency to confirm and perpetuate the Power they have usurped; that by some of them they claim the Cognizance of all Elections of the Magistracy, and even of the Clergy; and by others they require to be put in Possession of the Arsenal, Arms, Batteries, and Ammunition, and that the Garrison be reduced to 450 Men. They add, that above 1000 Persons are already gone out of the City, with their best Effects; that the Malecontents have turn'd out the Post-Masters of Geneva, and taken most of the Employments into their own Hands; and that the Deputies of Zurich and Bern have not yet been able to do any Good by their Mediation.

There's Advice from Spain, that on the 16th and 17th ult. the Flotilla from the Azogues, consisting of 13 Ships, arrived safe at Cadiz, with a Cargo consisting among other Things, of 14,104,270 Piafters, or Pieces of Eight; including therein 1,165,882 Piafters for the King's Account, 100,953 Piafters in Wrought Silver, and 17,450 Piafters in Gold; 25,717 Arches of Cochineal, 2,357 Quintals of Copper, 250,000 Banillas, 2 Quintals of Jalap, 38 Arches of Rhubarb, 87 of Balm, 139 of Salsaparilla, 36,958 of Havanna Sugar, 32,007 of Snuff, and a great Quantity of other Goods, amounting together to 17,000,000 of Piafters.

On the 30th ult. the Duke of Dorset was introduced to the King and Queen at France, at Versailles, and to the Dauphin and the young Princesses, by my Lord Waldegrave, the British Ambassador at that Court.

A Letter of the 19th ult. from Belgrade says, that the Count de Khevenhuller has form'd the Blockade of Widfin with 20,000 Foot and 10,000 Horse, while General Wallis is posted on the other Side of the Danube with 15,000 Men.

And another of the 27th from Vienna says, the Grand Army under Count Seckendorff is to enter Bosnia, there to cut off the Retreat of 30 or 40,000 Turks who are dispersed from Wyhatz to Zwornic, to insult the Frontiers of Germany; and 'tis said that for this Purpose Zwornic will be besieged before the End of the Campaign.

The Letters add, that on the 22d a Seal was put on all the Warehouses, and upon all the Trunks, &c. of the Rascian and Eastern Merchants at Vienna, in Reprisal for what has been done to the Emperor's Subjects at Constantinople, where they have been moreover so maltreated, that besides the Mobs falling on a Franciscan Convent, formerly protected by the Imperial Ambassador, the Factor of the Imperial Eastern Company was obliged to retire to the Quarters of the English Ambassador.

Some Letters from the same Place will have it, that the Defeat of the Turks between Oczakow and Bender, has been confirmed by an Express from the Emperor's Ministers at Nimirow, as well as from Wallachia, and the Grand Army under Seckendorff. They say, that the Turkish Army, tho' 36,000 Men, was intirely defeated; that the Serafsquier who commanded it, and 5 Bashas, were taken Prisoners; that the Action lasted three Days. The Grand Vizier having Advice of it, repaid the Danube, leaving only 15,000 Men to guard the Bridges, and that the Russians immediately invested Bender, and took it. They write moreover from Frankfort, by Letters of the 31st ult. that 3 Days before Count Colloredo received the same News from Vienna by Express, with these Circumstances, that the Turks lost 20,000 Men, and that the Battle was fought on the 22d, 23d, and 24th of August O.S.

Letters from Venice say, that at the Pope's Request one Ragniotto, a Native of Ancona, and a daring Assassin, was apprehended in the Square of St. Mark, who, 'tis said, has already murder'd 49 Persons with his own Hands, and threaten'd Cardinal Alberoni and several Clergymen.

From Florence they write, that a Scots Gentleman and one Mr. Wright, an Englishman, having had some Difference at an English Inn there, they fought a Duel, and were both wounded; the Scotsman by the Care of Dr. Tyrril, a Physician there, recovered; but the other died, and being a Roman Catholic, was interred at St. Peter's the Major.

The Letters from Vienna add, that a Couple of Spies had brought Advice to the Imperial Army, that the Turks speedily intended to make a new Incursion as far as Belgrade, and not to give themselves any Rest till they watered their Horses in the Save, and formed their Camp at Verbiza; because they very well knew, there were not Troops enough on the German Frontier to make any considerable Resistance. 'Tis added, that Malignant Fevers and the Dysentery make very great Havock in the Imperial Army, and that the same prove very Epidemical at and about Belgrade.

From the London Gazette.

Copenhagen, Sept. 14. N.S. The Body of the late Margravine was to have been transported into Germany, it being concluded that she had desired it might be so; but upon some Intimation to the contrary found since (as it is said) among her Papers, that Design is laid aside, and Preparations are now making for her Interment at Roschild, the usual Burying Place of the Royal Family of Denmark. This Princels happening to die at the Danish Court, where she was extremely considered, the King of Denmark, both for that Reason, and out of his particular Regard for the Queen, has been pleased to order a deeper Mourning for her than was ever observed here before upon any like Occasion. The Foot Forces in Garrison, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets, through which his Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horse, the Battle-axe Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidst the Acclamations of the People, with the usual Ceremony, to the Castle, where, in the Council Chamber, his Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Justices. After which the great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon College Green: And his Grace, repairing to the Prefence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, upon his safe Arrival to take on him the Government of this Kingdom.

Advertisements concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholic Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits; replied, that it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, thrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he law no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more adviseable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholics, Men of Credit.

The only short and infallible CURE For the HEMORRHOIDS or PILES of Kind, or in either Sex; and allowed to be by the most eminent Physicians in Europe.

IT is a pleasant ELECTUARY, which once infallibly cures the Piles, be they ever so bad, even after all other Means have failed, and that without any Trouble, Difficulty, or the least Confinement; in the sharpest Pain, and most miserable Torture, it gives Relief, and almost miraculous Ease.

No sooner is it taken secretly, but all manner of Uncon-veniences, as if by Enchantment, and the Patient himself as perfectly well and free from Pain, as if no such Illness had ever been, and thus it not only accomplishes its present, in all Persons whatsoever, but also, by subduing all Sharpness in the Blood and Juices, it prevents any Return of the Piles for the future, and intirely to cure that Illness, and thereby prevent and other direful Consequences, that cannot be too dreaded.

Thousands of Men and Women, who had for many Years more or less, been wretchedly afflicted with the Piles, and at once been perfectly cured by this great Remedy, to the no less Joy and Comfort than Admiration.

It is so safe, that a sucking Child might take it without inconvenience, for it never occasions the least Trouble or order, and is so very agreeable to take, as not to give Dislike the nicest Palate. Is sold only at Jacob's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Broad-street, behind the Royal-Exchange, at 5 s. a Pot, with Directions.

The incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtue, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true efficient and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mentioned below: It is sent for in large Quantities to the Plantations beyond the Seas, to whom good Allowance is given, as well as effectual in the East or West Indies as at London.

WHICH has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, for above 30 Years that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of the same still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs King's Toyshop, the Bible-shop, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mr.
Markham's Toy-shop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, and no where else, at 5 s. each Box.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, and never so black or yellow, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Deffusion, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under the Seven Stars) because most of the Toysmen in her Neigh-hood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have brought up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of ours, and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any Counterfeits, is sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' never so rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming robust Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.
